

Alexandra Cahr is an actor, singer, choreographer and performing arts instructor. Past experiences include teaching various styles of dance and movement at Star Dance Academy (Stamford Rec), choreographer for children's theater with BCHA's musical program, Camp Gan Israel of Westport, Westmorland Sanctuary, and the Stamford JCC. Alex has had the pleasure of being a part of the Curtain Call community ever since she herself was a young child. She's learned many things here, the biggest being that there are no small roles. She's spent years of her life focusing on acting, especially when there are no words involved. Our faces and body language can tell an entire story. her goal is to explore acting through movement, sound and creativity.
