

Jonathan Cahr has nearly three decades of experience in choral arranging for concerts, musicals and his own recordings. His career as an actor and singer spans Broadway, television, national tours and radio. He's a song writer/lead vocalist for The What's Up Band and parody band, The Shlamones whose original songs have been performed at Madison Square Garden, Citifield and Times Square. Jonathan teaches for Curtain Call during the year and has taught music, theatre and video at Bi-Cultural Day School, B'nei Israel, Rodeph Shalom and Shir Ami.